

Code of Conduct

For All Young Women and Adult Leadership

Who we are:

I am a BELOVED DAUGHTER of heavenly parents, with a divine nature and eternal destiny.

I am a disciple of Jesus Christ

I am a covenant maker and a covenant keeper

Therefore, we:

Observe all standards in For the Strength of Youth, especially those outlined below.

Dress and Appearance

“Our bodies are the temples of our spirits. It is to this bodily temple that we invite the companionship of the Holy Ghost. When we choose to wear modest clothing and behave with a modest demeanor, we wear and we live our testimony of God the Eternal Father and of His Son, Jesus Christ. We witness by our physical appearance that we are disciples of Christ and that we live His gospel.” Sister Carol F. McConkie

For the Strength of Youth (FSOY)

“Immodest clothing is any clothing that is tight, sheer, or revealing in any other manner. Young women should avoid short shorts and short skirts, shirts that do not cover the stomach, and clothing that does not cover the shoulders or is low-cut in the front or the back.”

Language

“Speak kindly and positively about others. Choose not to insult others or put them down; even in joking...always use the names of God and Jesus Christ with reverence and respect.” “Do not use profane, vulgar, or crude language or gestures.” FSOY

Friendship

“Treat everyone with kindness and respect, and refrain from judging and criticizing those around you. Do not participate in any form of bullying. Make a special effort to be a friend to those who are shy or lonely, have special needs, or do not feel included.” FSOY

Camp Rules

1. One girl per cot at all times. No lying or cuddling on cots together.
2. Respect must be shown for each camper and leader’s personal space. Physical contact should be appropriate and in keeping with church morality guidelines.
